

Big Breezy Boat - PC launch

Go sailing with Oculus Rift, HTC Vive and Oculus Go!

Wednesday 24 October 2018 - Melbourne, Australia — Inspired by a desire to easily share sailing with friends and family, Big Breezy Boat ships today on Steam and Oculus Store.

VR studio MarineVerse was founded by a small group of passionate sailors and technologists, spread across the globe and working together through the internet. Big Breezy Boat is their second title focused on virtual reality sailing after VR Regatta and incorporates experience gained while working on the first project.

Big Breezy Boat (B3) is a simple relaxing sailing experience with co-op multiplayer between mobile and PC VR. B3 is great for casual relaxing or a quick demo to people not familiar with virtual reality.

B3 was designed for a multiplayer sailing with friends/kids for people who own both Oculus Go and PC VR headset.

VR Arcade owners will be happy to learn that B3 is primarily a standing experience.

For those who prefer sailing solo - there is a single player mode with a couple of islands to discover.

To celebrate the launch, players are invited to join an online Sea Shanty singing contest, submitting their entries under #SeaShantyB3 hashtag. More information about the contest can be found on the game Steam forum.

Big Breezy Boat is available today from Oculus Store and Steam for USD 4.99 and is compatible with HTC Vive, Oculus Rift, Oculus Go, Samsung GearVR and Windows Mixed Reality headsets.

Greg Dziemidowicz, Lead developer, MarineVerse said: "I'm really excited for there to finally be a highly accessible VR sailing experience for everyone."

Greg Dziemidowicz, Lead developer, MarineVerse said: "I believe virtual reality can greatly enhance sailing training, be a great way for all 'landlocked' sailors to stay connected to their hobby and introduce more people to sailing."

Тя!cks-or-Тreats VR, Steam curator said: "If you are looking for a chill way to unwind in VR and the idea of sailing a boat intrigues you, then you may pleasantly surprised by this 🚤"

MarineVerse is an international team of creatives and advocates of sailing and emergent technology, with a mission to inspire, train, and connect sailors and to share the unique feeling of sailing with a global audience. Big Breezy Boat joins their fleet of virtual reality sailing titles as a entry level product. VR Regatta: The Sailing Game, which is more advanced, is recommended for those want to race and explore bigger sailing areas.
